Stockholm, Sept. 18, O. S.

ON Friday last at Noon died here, after two Days Illness, Senator Baron Palmfeldt, who, since the Demission of Count Tessin, acted as Vice President of the Chancery. The Day after this Gentleman's Decease, Count Tessin resumed the Functions of his former Post of Vice President, without any new Nomination, as the Act of his Demission had not yet passed through all the necessary Forms. For the same Reason he keeps also his Seat in the Senate.

Stockholm, Sept. 21, O. S. The Day before Yesterday the Princess Royal of Sweden gave a grand Entertainment at Ulrichstall, on Occasion of the taking of Prague by the Prussians.

Naples, Sept. 15, N. S. The small Forts, and other Preparations towards putting this Capital in a good Posture of Defence, are quite finished, as well as the other military Dispositions made along the Coast, insomuch that for the Present we are not in any Apprehension of being molested by the Enemy. Recruits, and all Sorts of Provisions, are constantly sent to the Armies at Velletri. The Sicknes in Calabria seems to be almost at an End, for many Days past no Person has died of it, and since the 19th they had begun to perfume and purify the City of Reggio, and its adjacent Villages; so that we are in Hopes to have a free Communication and Commerce soon restored with that Province.

Rome, Sept. 19, N. S. Remonstrances, on the Part of the Pope, were ordered lately to be made by M. Valenti, his Nuncio Extraordinary to the King of Naples, in relation to the Contributions which the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops exact from the Communities of Giuliano, Core, Terracina, Sermoneta, Piperno, and several other adjacent Towns to Velletri, as well as to their obliging those Communities to furnish a Man out of ten to serve in their Troops. The two Armies continue in their Intrenchments. Extraordinary Motions have been observed, of late, amongst the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops. They have dismounted, it is said, several Batteries, and blown up Part of the Hill of Artemisio, as if they designed to decamp. It was suspected that the King of Naples and the Duke of Modena were on their Departure from the Army, which, we hear, is greatly afflicted with Sicknes. The Austrians are very attentive to the Motions of the Enemy, and harraß them extremely, by obstructing their Supplies of Forage, and other Necessaries from Naples.

Florence, Sept. 22, N. S. On the 17th Lieutenant Colonel Pallavicini's Regiment, and a Colonel of a Regiment of Cuirassiers, arrived in this City from Prince Lobcowitz's Army, on their March to Piedmont. On Notice of the Sicknes being greatly abated in Calabria, the Magistrates of Health have re-established a free Communication and Commerce between Tuscany and the Ecclesiastical State.

Vienna, Sept. 26. The King of Prussia's advanced Column of 13000 Men, is said to be at Sudomirzitz, a Post on the other Side of Tabor, where he is making a great Retrenchment to his Left with felled Trees. Upon an Alarm in Silesia, from an Appearance of some Peasants in Bodies upon the Frontier Mountains, that an Army was entering there from Moravia, the Gates of Neiss have been shut, and the Cannon mounted upon the Works of the new Citadel, but the Vaults of the latter are said to have fallen in. General Harsch has not been suffered to enter into Vienna; his having made himself Prisoner of War hinders his being called to an immediate Account. It is thought that the King of Prussia has not made a Booty of above 7000 Men at Prague, so many of the Militia, who were in Garrison there, have found Means to escape already; and as General Bathiani has 800 Prussian Prisoners, it is hoped that the Warassiers and Grenadiers who offered to fight their Way through the whole Prussian Army, may be exchanged against them. It is assured, that the Prussians are pallifading every Bourg and Village on the other Side of the Elbe, that are properest for lining that River. On the Side of Hungary, there are already between 5 and 6000 Horse ready towards Scalitz, and it is expected that next Week they will be increased to between 12 and 15000. Prince Charles's Army, upon the Junction of the Saxons, will amount to 95000 Men. The repeated Advices we had of 1300 Prussian Deserters being in Prague, prove without Foundation, for we are since informed, that they did not exceed 50 at most.

Vienna, Sept. 27, N. S. The greatest Part of the Militia, lately surrendered at Prague, are returned to their Habitations, and 300 Croats have been exchanged. Prince Charles is this Day at Teinitz, and General-Bathiani at Rohitzan. The Saxons are to enter Bohemia the 5th of October. The first Column of Croats, amounting to 2000, designed for Bavaria, passed through this Place Yesterday in Carts; upon their Junction with General Berenclau his Corps will amount to 28,000 Men. General Roth is sent to defend Ingoldstadt. It is affirmed here, that the Prussian Army in Bohemia does not exceed 60,000 effective Men, and that the Horse is in a bad Condition.

Vienna, Sept. 30. The Prussians were obliged to sit down in Form before Tabor, a Place with a single old Wall: The Austrians, to the Number of 5 or 600, defended themselves two Days, particularly by two successful Sallies, and concealing the Consumption of their Powder by demanding a Parley, obtain'd a Capitulation to retire where they pleased, which they did towards Neuhaus, where they join'd the rest of their Body to the Number of 4000, under the Command of General Minski. This little Corps, which was at first posted at Krasnahora, has preceded which ever Way it was supposed the the Prussians intended to turn, and has spoiled the Routes, and embarrassed their March as much as possible. It is thought the Prussians will not advance higher than Tabor, unless they see a Probability of being joined by Count Seckendorf at Budeweiss, at which last Place it is supposed the latter has been summoned by the Prussians to join them. Sixty Pieces of the King of Prussia's greatest Artillery are said to be left with 5000 Men at Prague, the rest is with the Army canton'd between Tabor and Peseheli. General Bathiani was by the last Advices near Piseck. The Earl of Holderness arrived here the Day before Yesterday, and had Yesterday an Audience of the Queen.

Copenhagen, October 3. The King and Queen of Denmark, accompanied by the Prince Royal and the Hereditary Princess, being come to Town for a Day or Two, in order to take a View of the Wares brought by the last Ship from China, the Council was held, and there was a full Court Yesterday at the Palace of Christiansburg. In the Forenoon Baron Hopken, the new Swedish Minister, had his first Audiences, and presented his Credentials. The Danish Court returns this Evening to Fridericksburg.

Dresden, October 4, N. S. The Auxiliary Saxon Troops, furnished by the King of Poland to the Queen of Hungary, amounting to 20,000 Men, are at this Time upon the Extremity of the Frontiers of Voigtland, from whence they will To-morrow infallibly enter the Kingdom of Bohemia, and assemble the same Day in a Body in the Neighbourhood of Egra. Besides the two Field Pieces which each Battalion has with it, a separate Train of Artillery has been sent from hence for the Service of those Troops. The Chevalier de Saxe, who has the Command of them as General of Horse, under his most Serene Highness the Duke of Saxe Weissenfels, set out from hence the 1st Instant, and the Duke himself followed the 2d at Night, in order to put himself at their Head, and to hasten their Junction with the Queen's Forces, commanded by Prince Charles in Bohemia.

Frankfort, October 4. This Day a Courier from M. Seckendorf has brought us the News of the Taking of Donawerth by the Imperialists under his Command, in which Action the Count de St. Germain and the famous Partisan Geschrey were wounded. No farther Particulars are yet known.

Hambourg, October 9. By Letters from Dresden we hear, that Twenty thousand of the Saxon Troops are actually upon their March towards Egra. His Prussian Majesty's Army in Bohemia, according to the Advices which are received here from that Quarter, is intrenching itself at Tabor, upon Prince Charles's having joined General Bathiani near Pilsen, and their Forces being said to amount to 76,000 Men.

Huyfen, October 12, N. S. An Incampment is ordered for the Confederate Army in the Neighbourhood of Ghent. Our last Advices from Count Saxe's Army say, that they have sent 60 Squadrons of Horse, with two or three Battalions of Foot, towards Ypres, and that their whole Army will soon go into Winter Quarters.

Hague, October 9. Count Saxe has not only abandoned Pont d'Espieres, upon the Confederate Army's moving towards him, but has, it is said, done the same by Deynse, and even burnt his Magazines there.

Hague, October 13. By the last Letters from Dresden we learn, that the Saxon Troops entered on the 4th and 5th Instant into Bohemia, to the Assistance of the Queen of Hungary.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto William Freind, A. M. the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter Westminster, void by the Resignation of Dr. Robert Freind.

N. B. He was clothed in a Blue Grey Coat, a Black Waistcoat, and Blue Grey Stockings.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Hewit, of Aldergate-street, London, Sope-maker, are desired to meet the Assignee on Tuesday next, at Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, at Child's Coffeehouse in St. Paul's Church-yard, London, to assent to or dissent from his commencing a Suit or Suits in Equity concerning the Bankrupt's Effects; and on other Affairs.

City of Bristol and County of the } to wit.
same City,

At the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, held in and for the said City and County (by Adjournment) on Wednesday the 15th Day of August 1744, before John Berrow, Esq; Mayor of the said City, Joseph Jefferis, Esq; John Blackwell, Esq; Aldermen, &c. Justices assigned, &c.

W Hereas this City and County of the same City have sustained great and unreasonable Expences, by Means of Vagrants (in their Passage from other Counties and Places, to the Places to which they are to be passed) being brought into this City and County of the same City, not being in the direct Way to the Place to which such Vagrant or Vagrants is or are to be conveyed, contrary to the Directions of an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; Therefore, to prevent such Expences for the Future, and to the End that the Directions of the said Act may be duly observed, this Court doth order and direct all Constables and other Officers of this City and County of the same City, (whom it may concern) not to receive any Vagrant or Vagrants brought or conveyed hither from any other Place, (as lying in the direct Way to the Place to which such Vagrant or Vagrants is or are to be conveyed) unless this City and County of the same City shall actually be in the direct Way to the Place to which such Vagrant or Vagrants is or are to be conveyed: And to the Intent that this Order may be generally known, It is further ordered, that the same be forthwith published in such Manner as the Governor of the Corporation of the Poor in the said City of Bristol shall think fit.

By the Court,

CANN.
